United States Consulate
New France Oct 11 1861

I V. Clow of the house of Mart Reo, being duly sworn, do solemnly swear that the foregoing is a list of passengers who will put out on the Republique, bound for to sail this day from this Port. That they are known to this Consulate to be the usual class of migrants going generally in families to the United States for purposes of settlement. That he believes that they were not aware of the new regulation of the United States in relation to passports when they left for their place of embarkation.

From before me
this 11th October 1861
James O. Sullivan
Consul of the United States

I certify that I have the Clow to be of the house of Mart Reo, an emigration agency in this City. I believe the above list to be of ordinary class of emigrants, who are without passports. I have seen Mart Reo the regulations of U.S. require passports, and that they must take the risks incident to their neglect of their passages to pass our laws.
